Name of the child	Gender	Date(s) of Birth
Freya Angela Davidson	Female	12 Feb 2021

Special guardianship order warning

It is a criminal offence to take a child out of the United Kingdom without the consent of everybody with parental responsibility unless the court has given permission.

While a special guardianship order is in force in relation to a child no person may:

- a) cause the child to be known by a new surname
- b) remove the child from the United Kingdom without the written consent of every person with parental responsibility for the child or the leave of the court.

However, this does not prevent the removal of the child from the United Kingdom by a special guardian for a period of less than three months.

Confidentiality warnings

After the proceedings have concluded no person shall publish information related to the proceedings including accounts of what has gone on in front of the judge, documents filed in the proceedings, transcripts or notes of evidence and submissions, and transcripts and notes of judgments (including extracts, quotations, or summaries of such documents). Any person who does so may be in contempt of court.

Information related to the proceedings must not be communicated to any person other than as allowed by Rules 12.73 or 12.75 or Practice Direction 12G of the Family Procedure Rules 2010.

Right to apply

If you were not told about the hearing you may ask the court to reconsider this order. You must do that within seven days of receiving this order by writing to the court and asking the court to reconsider. You must tell the person who applied for the order that you are asking the court to reconsider the order.
