IMPORTANT NOTICES

Child arrangements orders warnings

(WHERE THE COURT MAKES OR VARIES A CHILD ARRANGEMENTS ORDER, IT MUST ATTACH THE FOLLOWING NOTICE: S 11I, CA 1989)

*This order includes italica child arrangements order (the part of the order setting out the living arrangement for a child and the time to be spent or contact with another person). If you do not do what the child arrangements order says you may be made to do unpaid work ("an enforcement order") or pay financial compensation.*

(WHERE THE COURT MAKES A 'LIVES WITH' CHILD ARRANGEMENTS ORDER, IT IS GOOD PRACTICE TO ATTACH THE FOLLOWING NOTICE: S13, CA 1989)

This order includes a 'lives with' child arrangements order (the part of the order setting out the living arrangement for a child). No person may cause the child to be known by a new surname or remove the child from the United Kingdom without either the written consent of every person who has parental responsibility for the child or leave of the court. However, a person named in this order as the person with whom the child 'lives' may remove the child from the United Kingdom, for a period of less than one month.

(IT IS GOOD PRACTICE TO ATTACH THE FOLLOWING WARNING TO ALL CHILD ARRANGEMENT ORDERS)

It may be a criminal offence under the Child Abduction Act 1984 to remove the child [ren] from the United Kingdom without the appropriate consent.

Confidentiality warnings

During the proceedings and after they have concluded no person shall publish information related to the proceedings including accounts of what has gone on in front of the judge, documents filed in the proceedings, transcripts or notes of evidence and submissions, and transcripts and notes of judgments (including extracts, quotations, or summaries of such documents). Any person who does so may be in contempt of court.

Until the conclusion of the proceedings no person shall publish to the public at large or any section of the public without the court's permission any material which is intended or likely to identify the child [ren] as being involved in these proceedings or an address or school as being that of the child [ren]. Any person who does so may be guilty of an offence.

The exceptions to this are in Rules 12.73 or 12.75 or Practice Direction 12G of the Family Procedure Rules 2010.

Compliance warnings

All parties must immediately inform the allocated judge as soon as they become aware that any direction given by the court cannot be complied with and to seek in advance an extension of time to comply.

In the event that a party fails to comply with directions and/or fails to attend any hearing without good reason the court may make final orders at that hearing.

Special guardianship order warning

It is a criminal offence to take a child out of the United Kingdom without the consent of everybody with parental responsibility unless the court has given permission.

While a special guardianship order is in force in relation to a child no person may:

- a. cause the child to be known by a new surname

b. remove the child from the United Kingdom without the written consent of every person with parental responsibility for the child or the leave of the court.

However, this does not prevent the removal the child from the United Kingdom by a special guardian for a period of less than three months.

Penal notice

(PENAL NOTICE: NOT AUTOMATICALLY INCLUDED. IF INCLUDED, THE ORDER MUST BE PERSONALLY SERVED UNLESS THE COURT DISPENSES WITH THAT REQUIREMENT: FPR 2010, R 37(4))
